“The case of six foreign health workers facing the death penalty
in Libya”

with

Professor Mohammed Dew Agniah
Head of National Committee of Viruses

Mr. Ramadan Ali El Fature
Speaker on behalf of Family and children infected

Friday 15th December 2006

at 2 pm.

« La Pastorale », Route de Ferney 106, Genève

The fate of six health workers accused of injecting more than 400 children with HIV should be known before Christmas.

The verdict in the case of the six foreign health workers facing the death penalty in Libya will be announced on 19 December. The court in Tripoli set the date when the trial proper closed on Saturday 4th November. There are many questions still open among them

Were the Libyan Children Infected before Arrival of Bulgarian Nurses and Palestinian Doctor?

You will have the chance to hear from the Family of the children infected and from a very prominent Libyan Professor who has disputed the result of the last report published by Nature magazine.

Many questions will be answered and you'll have the chance to hear the other side of the story .

The press meeting will be followed by a drink.

I look forward to seeing you at this press meeting.

Guy Mettan, Director Executive
